

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY AUGUST 6.

Not even out of respect will any democracy attend the funeral of the thugwump party next year.

McGarigle is a good deal like the Irishman's tale. When you put your hands on him he is not there.

It sometimes takes one thief to catch another, but in the McGarigle case it seems that one detective does not want to catch an old friend in the business.

A rumor is out that there has been a bold attempt to rob Jay Gould. We are glad of it. One in a while it does a man good to be compelled to take his own medicine.

It begins to look as though Maxwell, the murderer of Preller, will not hang at all, the supreme court having granted him a reprieve. There are some supreme courts that would rather render justice than take a vacation.

A California paper remarks: "What this state needs at Washington is a howler, a man who will ask for everything in sight and get it." Well, the democratic party has howled at the man at Washington, and has got about everything there is to get.

There are too many democrats in Texas for the success of prohibition in that state. For several years the prohibitionists have been working for democratic success, and the result is a good deal like cutting off the nose to spite the face.

From careful investigations by Ohio newspapers, it seems that 75 per cent. of the labor votes of the state will come from the democratic party, and 25 per cent. from the republicans. It is thought 40,000 to 50,000 labor votes will be polled.

Sergeant Mason, made famous for having shot at Galt during his trial for the murder of President Garfield, and who was confined in the Albany penitentiary for some time, has become a prosperous and very quiet farmer in Orange county, Virginia. He, with Betty and several babies, are reported to be comfortable in all respects.

Henry George says in his paper, the Standard, that the platform to be adopted by the United Labor party at the Syracuse convention, should firmly define the party's position with regard to socialism. Mr. George then goes on to explain the difference between his own land theories and socialist doctrine, and invites the socialists to go with the United Labor party.

Why should Mr. Eugene Higgins be alarmed? What has he done? It is an old story, and there is no reason to suppose that he need fear the action of the president, notwithstanding that functionary's alleged superiority to his party. This is not Mr. Cleveland's reform year.—Philadelphia Times.

This is quite significant as it comes from an administration paper. Mr. Cleveland does not seem to have had a reform year since he has been in office.

Sheriff Mabou, of Chicago, who is responsible for McGarigle's vacation in Canada, was for a time a student in Milton college, and only in the war enlisted in the Thirtieth Wisconsin regiment. He was mustered out as first lieutenant in Captain Randall's company. He is an honest man, and it was simply through his extreme good nature and native kindness that he permitted McGarigle to take a bath.

The Montreal Gazette wonders what the matter with the married people of Minneapolis. It says: "In the whole of Minnesota in 1886 there were 8,941 marriages and 415 divorces, or one divorce for every 21½ marriages. In Hennepin county, however, where Minneapolis is situated, there were 163 divorces to 1,761 marriages, or one to ten almost. Minnesota is settled by a population of fully the average intelligence and prosperity, and the causes of the abnormal amount of marital infidelity indicated by these figures are difficult to define."

Mr. Calistano Danbar, wife of Colonel Danbar, who discovered the Bethesda Springs at Waukegan, died last spring, leaving a personal estate worth some $55,000; of this amount she leaves $6,000 to be used for masses for the repose of the souls of herself and family. The will was filed in the probate court yesterday, and gives $30,000 to Estelle Hunter, the daughter of the testator, who lives in Paris. The other bequests are as follows: Little Sisters of the Poor, $500; St. Rose Orphan asylum, $500; Sacred Heart church, Notre Dame, Ind., $1,000; St. Gall's church, Milwaukee, $1,000; the Rev. Aloysius Tenzel, Esq., Germany, for a new church, $1,000. Besides the $6,000 for masses, $1,000 is bequeathed for masses for the repose of the testator's soul. It is stipulated that there shall be not less than four such masses per week. The executors and trustees named are Estelle Hunter, Leopold Hunter, Jr., the Rev. S. P. Lalmiers and James G. Jenkins. Only $75,000 of the estate is invested in real estate, the rest being personal property.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTION.
Obviously enough, the period of decline in democratic strength in Kentucky corresponds exactly with the period of activity of the free trade idea, which the Hon. John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky, represents more conspicuously than any other democratic statesman, and the Courier Journal of Louisville more energetically than any other democratic newspaper.—New York Sun.

There is a good deal of truth in that statement, but it is not the whole truth. Kentucky politics is worse than Ohio politics. The Louisville Courier-Journal, the chief democratic paper of the state, admits that there are more murders growing out of quarrels among local democratic politicians in Kentucky than in any other state in the Union; and there are now running at large in that state twenty-seven murderers who will probably never be punished.

The decline of the democratic strength in Kentucky is attributed to two causes—the extreme free trade views of the leading democrats, as the New York Sun states, and the lawlessness of the party leaders in the interior counties. There was a time, and it was not very long ago, either, when Kentucky was good for 60, or 70,000 democratic majority. But the party will never see either of these majorities again. The voters in Kentucky are getting their eyes opened. They don't like free trade, and they are shocked at the political outrages in the state. These reasons, and possibly there are others, have brought about a republican gain in the old bourbon state of over 21,000 within two years.

It is worth mentioning the curious fact that some democratic politicians charge the fight democratic in Kentucky to the profound disgust because there have not been more republican removals from office, and others say that thousands of Union men who have been voting the democratic ticket for years, are disgusted because the confederates got all the places.

BOODLERS GO TO JOLIET.
The trial of eleven of the Cook county boodlers is at an end, and each one of them has been found guilty. The jury fixed the penalties, and are as follows: "Back" McCarthy, $1,000 fine. Warden Varnell two years in the penitentiary. Adam Ochs, two years in the penitentiary. Dan Wren, two years in the penitentiary. R. M. Oliver, $1,000 fine. Mike Wasserman, two years in the penitentiary. J. E. Van Felt, two years in the penitentiary. Christian Geils, $1,000 fine. Chris Casselmon, $1,000 fine. R. S. McClaughery, two years in the penitentiary. Mike Leyden, two years in the penitentiary.

It will readily be seen that the sentences are light. All told, the boodlers stole nearly a million dollars from Cook county during the past two years. Among the number found guilty, are some professional and notorious bribe-takers. They are corruptists by nature. They have stolen the public funds and sold their votes at every opportunity; and it hardly seems that justice has been vindicated by sending this class of boodlers to the penitentiary for two years. But if Varnell and Wren and others have not received as many years as they should, the satisfaction remains that the trial has accomplished much good. It has broken up completely the Cook county ring. It has settled for many years to come, the fact that bribe-takers and corruptists cannot long continue defrauding the public. It has made it impossible for men of bad business morals, who place no value on official integrity, to thereafter control the government of Cook county. In these respects the trial has been of incalculable benefit to Chicago and other municipalities, and teaches that the way of the boodlers, if not especially hard, is unprofitable.

There are other redoubtable-looking numbers in the list, and probably but few of them will be tried, as they are not of any important character.

Saved His Life.
Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horeo Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Diabetes. Diabetes, the most terrible disease of the human system, would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Frank Sherer & Co.

Using an Engine.
The work of firing an engine comes very near being skilled labor, especially on a lightning run. Then one has to be feeding coal almost constantly from the start. And the coal must not be thrown into the firebox carelessly, but it must be placed where it will do the most good. The steam must be kept up to the figure, and no great variations from the standard are allowed. A train has to be fired to do with an engine off and on, that if he is intelligent it is not long before he is able to handle a locomotive all right. But that is not saying he gets one. I have been firing for six years and my engine is not yet in trouble. The most delicate stomach accepts it with relish. Price, fifty cents, of Fretz & Evenson, O. P.

Cure for Hysterics.
Hot lemonade, taken just before retiring, is a well known remedy for a cold in its first stages. Everybody is not familiar, however, with the lemon cure for an acute attack of hysteria. For this purpose first wash the face with cold water, turning it now and then so that all sides may be equally cooled. It should not crack or break, but be soft all through. While the lemon is still very hot, cut a piece from the top, fill with as much sugar as it will hold and run on going to bed.

Sweet Land of Rest.
In India there are folk who will lean up against a tree, put a few grains of wheat into their mouths, and sleep for two months at a stretch, while the wheat sprouts and grows. When a good policeman dies, children, he does not go to heaven; O no. He goes to India and is made a corporal of falks the first year.

Greatly Excited.
Not a few of the citizens of Janesville have recently become greatly excited over the astonishing facts, that several of their friends who had been pronounced by their physicians as incurable and beyond hope—suffering with that dreaded monster Consumption—have been complete yoned by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the only remedy that can possibly cure a throat and lung disease, Cough, Colds, Asthma and Bronchitis. Trial bottle free at Frank Sherer & Co's Drug Store, large bottles $1.

CELLS FOR SEVEN.

The Chicago "Boodlers" Now Know Their Fate.

VERDICT OF THE JURY IN THE GREAT CASE.

All of the Accused Found Guilty—Seven Sentenced to Two Years at Joliet—The Other Four to Pay Fines of $1,000 Each.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—The memorable "boodler" trial is at an end. Nothing now remains but to sentence the defendants in accordance with the verdict of the jury. That verdict is one of conviction of all the defendants upon the charges of conspiracy to defraud the county. At nine o'clock last evening, after an absence of six hours, the jury returned into court its verdict. A punishment of two years in the penitentiary was imposed upon each one of the defendants except Messrs. Casselman, Geils, Oliver and McCarthy, who escape with a fine of $1,000 each. The defendants upon whom a penitentiary sentence was imposed, Leyden, Wren, Mc Claughery, Wasserman, Varnell, Van Felt and Ochs, were at once taken from the court-house to the jail.

The verdict gives universal satisfaction excepting in the cases of McCarthy and McClaughery. It was generally supposed that the latter would be let off lightly, while the former would be among those most heavily sentenced. The public would have been better pleased had these two exchanged places.

Judge Jamison will hold a brief session, commencing at two o'clock this afternoon, to hear and determine the usual motion for a new trial in the case.

The last arguments were made yesterday morning. Mr. Sullivan closing for the defense, and Mr. Grinnell for the state. In the afternoon Judge Jamison delivered his charge to the jury. The court started in by reading the instructions on behalf of the state. They were worded exactly as those in the McDonald McGarigle case. There were sixty-four instructions, and the hall of the defense, by twenty-eight of those were merely technical and some of them were nothing more than repetitions. They were couched in the usual stream, and began with the statement that no amount of negligence on the part of the defendants could supply the want of criminal intent.

As soon as the jury had finished reading, he summoned the sheriff and gave the defendants into his keeping. In this respect following out the usual custom in all criminal cases.

After the jury were retired from the court-room to deliberate upon their verdict. As soon as the jury had finished reading, he summoned the sheriff and gave the defendants into his keeping. In this respect following out the usual custom in all criminal cases.

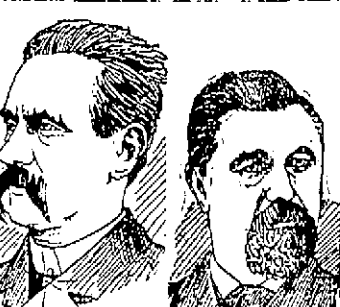

After almost six hours' waiting in charge of the sheriff and his deputies word came to the accused that the jury was coming into court. The defendants hurried to their cells, and taking their hats, went to the court-room to learn their fate. They all appeared bronzed with excitement and stretched their necks forward to hear every word. The clerk read out each one's name and the verdict, and all tops seemed gone. Then McClaughery's name was first read as being given a two-years sentence, and no one hoped to have a lighter one. Oliver, Geils and Casselman gave a groan of relief when they learned they were let off by a fine. McCarthy tried to appear injured, and declared he would go to jail along with the others. Captain Mc-

Laughery was silent, and there was great sympathy expressed for him, but for the others there was nothing but approval heard for the action of the jury. As soon as the verdict was announced a cheer was started in the rear of the large audience, but immediately after McCarthy's name was called, Varnell and Leyden's face was pale as death. Varnell appeared desperate. Van Felt, said he was glad it was over, as he wanted to serve out his sentence as soon as possible. Wren accepted the situation meekly.

There are sixty-eight boodler indictments as yet untried, and in all of them at least one of the men recently tried is defendant. Most of them are, however, for conspiracy, and in those if the State's Attorney elects to go on with their trial, the plea will be set up that the defendants cannot twice be put in jeopardy for the same offense. But there is a class of indictments, wherein the plea would be of no avail. Leyden, Wasserman, McCarthy, Ochs, Wren, Van Felt, McClaughery and Lynch are all indicted jointly with Michael Costello, in what are known as the coal cases. Here the charge is not conspiracy, but bribery, and the plea of a distinct offense in place of previous conviction can be set up.

There are also a number of indicted people whose cases have not been either brought to trial or a plea entered. These are Richard O. Driscoll and James Connolly, employees at the hospital; E. A. Robinson, the grocer; Napoleon Barsalou, the furniture dealer; Edward Phillips, the coal house custodian; William Harley, the contractor; Henry L. Holland and L. P. Crane, the paint case; Philip Kelly, the sewer contractor; Casselman, a grocer; C. L. Cullen, contractor for janitor work; Frank Murphy, employee at the asylum; Charles C. Warren, electric-light dealer; Rush K. Warren, reformer; A. J. Walker, F. R. Murphy and J. J. Hayes.

A BOY'S AWFUL FALL.
Jehonah Parsons in New York Almost Starve Their Nine-Year-Old Boy—In Making an Effort to Procure Food He Is Terribly Injured.
New York, Aug. 6.—A nine-year-old boy was yesterday morning seen crawling out of a rear fourth story window of the tenement house No. 21 Spring street, much the worse for his fall, and at once taken to a hospital. He had not got half way down when, either from weakness or dizziness at the great height, he lost his hold and fell to the pavement of the street. The fall, which was from a height of about thirty feet, struck him on his back and resulted in injuries from which he will probably die. The Italians who live in the vicinity, as usual, tried to prevent the police from obtaining any information concerning the accident, but it was learned that Severio Viano and Deborah Bialonia, the parents of the boy, always looked him up in the fourth-story room where they lived when they went to work at five or six o'clock in the morning, and left him without food. When Joseph, the boy, awoke yesterday morning, after his parents had gone out, he had gone without food for twenty hours. Hunger impelled him to try to make his way to the street, in the hope of finding some scraps.

Swept by Wind.
CHAMBERLAIN, Ill., Aug. 6.—A cyclone visited the western and northern part of this county yesterday afternoon, doing considerable damage to fences, barns, trees, etc. The barn and outbuildings of the late George S. H. H. near Lake, were blown from their foundations and carried twenty feet. There was no loss of life.

Deserted.
Deserted, Ind., Aug. 6.—A terrific wind, rain and hail, with a cold storm, visited the southern part of the county yesterday afternoon. Scarcely a stalk of corn was left standing in the track of the storm. The barns and outbuildings of the late George S. H. H. near Lake, were blown from their foundations and carried twenty feet. There was no loss of life.

Alleged Discriminations.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The Vermont State Grange of Farmers of New England have filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission a complaint against the Boston & Lowell Railroad Company and certain of its connections, charging that higher freight rates are charged between Boston and certain Vermont stations than between Boston and Montreal or Boston and Detroit.

Three More Naval Cruisers.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Bids are to be opened at the Navy Department at noon next Monday for the construction of three steel cruisers of about 4,000 tons displacement each, and two steel gun-boats of about 1,700 tons displacement each. Plans and specifications have been asked for by nearly every establishment of the navy capable of building vessels of the character required.
